General Information and most important

This meet is not sanctioned by a governing body. There is no complaint department. This meet is about the talented students. No host or volunteer has any special interest in any one athlete. Calls made and rules followed are all we are doing to create a fun and competitive environment. If you feel the need to create conflict over a children's track and field meet you are entered in the wrong meet. Please make it about the kids and enjoy the day of competition.
