OTHER THINGS TO KNOW

- Most of these students have never run a race at night. When the sun goes down – the energy changes. Enjoy it.
- Bring your own water
- Take your trash with you. We will provide teams with a trash bag.
- You will need some way to light your tent area (glow sticks / battery operated lights etc. – kids seem to be creative with this if you let them)
- May want a tarp for ground cover as you will have dew on the grass in the evening
- Bug spray – we will fog the main areas, but it won't take care of everything.

- Buses will not park on site so share this with your driver and have a way to communicate your pickup with them.
- Concessions will be available
- T-shirts will be available for $25 – please share this info with your runners.
- Stay off tees and greens
- STAY ON THE CC COURSE – We want to be welcome back, so poor judgement by any of the students will not reflect well, obviously.

CAN WE.....

If the kids want to know something.... Remember it is a real meet with all the same rules. It is at night; I do think it's pretty cool... but it's not a "glow run or color run" so to speak. The glow sticks can be worn as jewelry if so desired, but it would be considered jewelry and worn as such. Face painting – No. It's not approved for WIAA and it's dark and there are not going to be any special lights that make the paint look "cool" necessarily. SO, TO ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS I've received – if you can't do it at any other meet, you can't do it at this meet. If it's legal, you don't have to email me to ask if it's okay... it's on you. Reference from the previous night meets – Rarely have the kids worn glow sticks while running. They have them on and around, but many do not choose to race with them. I think it sounds cool at first and then the kids get annoyed by them because they aren't used to running with plastic tubes around their necks. They yank them off while running and it is the most "picked up trash" item after the meet.

Again, you can wear them. Just ask the kids to take them with them
